

I need one million trillion evil henchmen for my evil mastermind plans to take over the entire planet. I need the evilest evil henchmen who think they would pair well with my evil energy - here is the start of my evilest evil novel that will be published to the world but until the book is released in need to gather my evil army forces to prepare to take over the world using doom and destruction !!!!!

Here is the inner workings of my evil brain. If you empathize, join the dark side !

Today i am inside the library looking at different book covers for inspiration and i am finding tons of huge monstrous sized books with interesting fonts and size and styles and i am seeing lots of doodles and drawings while im listening to my cool teenage music in my emo alternative headphones -

i want to tell everyone about all the things that i have been doing this weekend and am about to do today because GUESS WHAT! I have been doing nothing productive or of any substance for the past month and FEEL INSANE!

I am erratic and i need to declare my evil plans to the entire planet but i hate writing sentences and i like talking super fast - so typing is agonizingly slow

1. My first evil plan is probably to invent a speed ray and zap it on one of my many henchmen - probably the one that is the best at typing - and have him type literally everything that i am telling him word for word at the speed that i am typing actually no - probably faster - because than he can edit and make me sound smarter better and overall hotter and more diabolical.

I want my book to be big

I want my book to be HUGE

Like size wise - i am hoping for a massive giant size book that is inconvenient to put on a shelf so that when i publish this and give it to someone they are like "ahh yes!! Thank you!!" but than they cannot put it on the shelf but they absolutely cannot throw it away or give it to someone else because i specifically gave that gift to them and i will be talking about me and my new book for many months after i publish it so they will have to figure out where they want to put this massive huge big giant evil book full of my plots and ramblings and evil monologues .

Speaking of evil monologue - i want one here - lets ask GPT:

Me to gpt : give me the evilest evil monologue that is also silly but mostly evil and for adults and make sure that the monologue mentions lasers and slime and some kind of ultimate evil plot mwahahahah

Gpt to me : Ah, my nefarious audience, gather 'round as I unveil the wicked symphony that orchestrates my diabolical plans! Cue maniacal laughter

Behold, in the shadows of malevolence, I, the mastermind extraordinaire, plot the most sinister scheme the world has ever witnessed! Picture this: a legion of mutant kittens armed with laser beams attached to their fluffy tails, wreaking havoc across the unsuspecting city streets. Yes, yes, mwahahaha!

But that's merely the overture, my maleficent minions. For my pièce de résistance, I shall unleash a tidal wave of slime upon the unsuspecting populace! Rivers of gooey, neon-colored ooze shall consume all in its path, turning the world into a surreal landscape of slippery chaos! Imagine trying to navigate your daily routine while drenched in the stickiness of my ultimate concoction. It's diabolically inconvenient, is it not?

And now, the grand finale of my wicked opera—a plot so fiendish it would make even the most twisted villain cower in awe. I shall construct a device, a fearsome contraption of doom, capable of swapping the toppings on every pizza across the globe! Pineapple on pepperoni, anchovies on Hawaiian—utter pizza pandemonium! The horror!

Mwahahaha! Tremble, mere mortals, for I, the malevolent maestro, shall reign supreme! My lasers, my slime, and my dastardly pizza plot will plunge the world into an era of unparalleled absurdity. Join me, or be doomed to live in a world where chaos and calamity are as inevitable as the delivery of a pizza with a side of sardines!

And now, as the curtain falls on this wicked monologue, let the reign of silliness and evil commence! Mwahahaha!

This everything about this omg this is

This book is probably not going to be a long one and i fully expect to give up on it sometime in the incredibly near future as i have always done with my many infinite projects ^{cough} and i think that if i even wrote another four pages of this book i would honestly be pretty damn impressed with myself because i know for a fact that i kind of want to edit this shit - but not really because i want someone else to edit this but that someone can absolutely not be gpt because even though they are incredibly self sufficient and (obviously) very evil (some might even say just as evil as me) they like to end their sentences as actual sentences while i on the other hand like to make my sentences as long as i physically possibly can.

I am kind of hungry - today after i sprinted around my dorm making my evil earth killing keurig hot chocolate and non biodegradable full of gmos instant microwavable oatmeal and packaging my totally full of microplastics and sodium fruit loops into the plastic ziploc bag i sprinted to my waste of time waste of money THEORETICAL math class where today we learned about adding and subtracting! Can you believe! Finally after all this time FINALLY i have been waiting for someone ANYONE to teach me how to add goddamn whats a girl gotta do around here to get someone to sit down for two hours and teach me how to add!?!?!?

Anyways i've kind of said everything i wanted to say for right now - and i do not feel the urge to continue to write ~~ANYMORE~~. Perhaps at some point i will be passionate enough to pick this doc back up again and tell you more things and even actually start this book which i hope will be around 6-8 chapters but well see if i can even make it to chapter 3. I have many evil ideas and big giant evil plots on the way to share with you - the universe and my evil audience - and i hope that you can find it in your deep dark souls to empathize with me and all my funny bits.

Till morrow !

Tis morrow mwahahahahahha

Today i heard a quote and that quote was "im not just 'some guy' -- IM HIM!!!" and im thinking yes this is so i-t-g-i-r-l core from the tiktok audio and very main character energy - this kind of me myself and i mentality is something that i want to express in my many. Evil. plans. I feel as though - with my feelings - u know feelings - my feelings are evil!!!!!!! Evil evil evil evil evil evil mwahahahahahahahahahahah

NEW IDEA

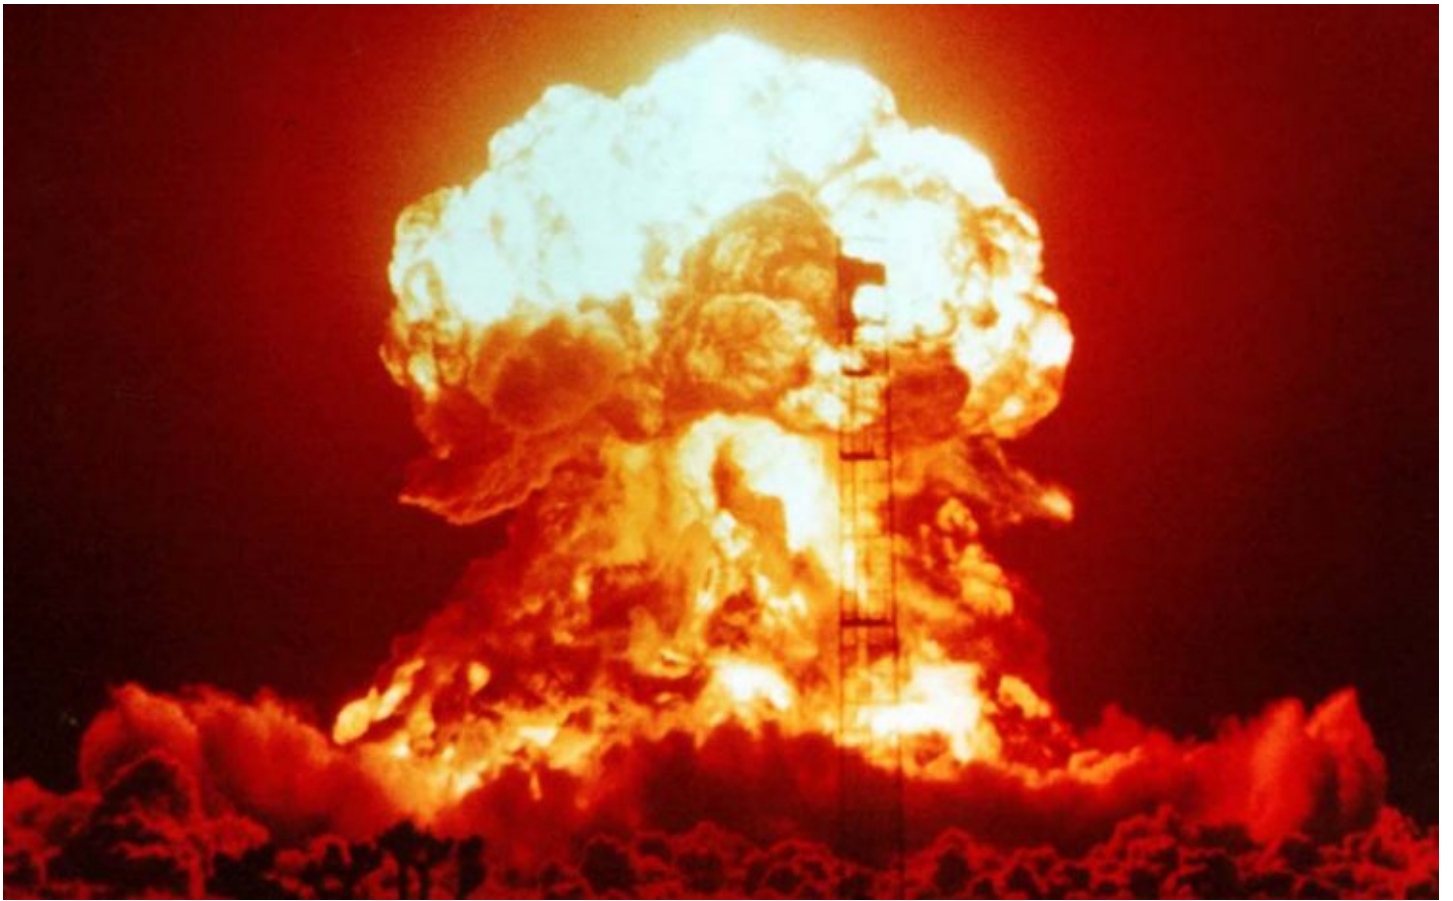

Half of a restaurant because why would you want to eat an entire meal when you obviously only have room for half?!?!?!? Only pay for a smaller portion - it's not even small portions it's literally one half of a larger portion. Like - say waffle - sometimes two waffles is two many - but one and a half waffles....??????? One and a half waffles????????? Now that's way more manageable and less rage inducing than eating too much and feeling miserable

ALTERNATIVE IDEA

Restaurant that doesnt let u take home ur extra so ur compelled to eat too much and feel miserable MWAHAHHAHAHAHAHAHAH (workshopped idea this returaint is across the street and also eviler bc they make u pay for double of what u ordered in addition to being a large meal.)

(Another idea)

Once upon a time there was'eth a small amount of dishes ,...

The dishes multiplied like really gooey alien eggs that jump out at you in video game previews before the battle before the boss battle and hatch into more dishes and multiply to the point where they overfill the sink and they stink and everything is full to the brim for the end of time and i know this isn't a witty or interesting paragraph that you just read but i don't care! I do not write for you - the reader's mild and bile satisfaction of reading an evil novel - no - i instead own and operate my entire evil empire which is mine and mine alone. None of you will ever understand the mere amount of angst and rage that i have inside my diabolical inner being inside of my core.

Give me a spoon so i may eat your eyes so my body absorbs all the eyeball nutrients to give me better eyes.

Much better eyes than YOUUUUU

BUZZ BUZZ

I FEEL RAGE i am a silent ominous listener inside my dorm keeping the peace between myself and literally nothing - the void - i am the thread and like in the metaphor im hanging on my a thread? I am the thread - i am telling you nothing - this is a nothing sentence - i am drifting into the void.

Ladies and gentlemen, if we look to our right we can see everyone on the entire planet and if we look to our left we can see the one and only marvelous logan silvers - now i ask you to choose - where are you gunna go? To the left? Or the right? Yeah THAT'S WHAT I THOUGHT so ur saying you would choose SOCIETY over mee oh YEAHH I SEE HOW IT IS I SEE HOW IT IS life is but a series of living different liiiivveesssss my LIVESSSSS you hate me and all of my lives well yeah ?

WELL I HATE YOU TOO

Shamus is going to write a page.

Hey. Ughh, I ate subway today and Logan thinks I didn't haha. Bro, my hands smell like shit. OH YEAHH I should tell josie uh how to turn on the earbuds cause one of em needs to be turned on in a certain way to activate. DID YOU KNOW! The liver when it produces bile gets stored in the gallbladder, which is arguably the most useless organ because when you get rid of it there's no serious long term effects, but if you DO HAVE A GALLBLADDER theres a small chance it gets infected and blows up/fucking kills you from infection. LIKE HOW IS IT POSSIBLE this organ is objectively THE WORST. FUCKING LIKE BRO IF THE LIVER IS WORTH A MILLION DOLLARS THE GALLBLADDER IS WORTH 20 DOLLARS AS A SOURCE OF NUTRITION AND SUSTENANCE CAUSE IT CERTAINLY DOESN'T DESERVE THE HONOR OF JOINING THE SYSTEM OF ORGANS! Fuck the appendix too tbh cause that shit could also get infected and explode from diseases that it was DESIGNED TO HELP COMBAT AGAINST???? LIKE WHAT. I wouldn't let that slide me personally if I was an appendix like fucking hell. Mr.Berg almost died because his appendix almost exploded lol. (from logan: why didnt he) from:shamus. Uhhh idk YOU ARE OMNIPOTENT, JUST GO AHEAD AND MAKE IT HAPPEN RN!
